

Shade Research Collective Symposium Power, Migration, and Culture in and out of The Tobacco Valley

April 24th, 9 AM - 12:30 PM

Panel 1 - Shaded Archives

9-10:30AM

“Imperial frames and colonial politics in the making of the Tobacco Valley”

Jason Oliver Chang
Assoc. Prof. of History, Asian and Asian American Studies
University of Connecticut

“The Long Shadow and Legacies of WWII Labor Conditions”

Fiona Vernal
Assoc. Prof. of History, Africana Studies
University of Connecticut

“Puerto Rican tobacco worker migration to Connecticut”

Elena Rosario
PhD Candidate in History
University of Michigan

Panel 2 - Shades of Tobacco Life

11AM-12:30PM

“Manifest Disablement”

Sony Coráñez Bolton
Assist. Prof. of Spanish, Latinx and Latin American Studies
Amherst College

“Beyond the Fields: Gender, Labor, and the Public Legacies of Puerto Rican Farm Workers and Needleworkers”

Aimee Loiselle
Postdoctoral Fellow
Smith College

“Cultivating Dignity”

Alycia Bright Holland
Assoc. Prof. of Theatre
Kristen Morgan
Assoc. Prof. of Theatre, New Media Studies
Eastern Connecticut State University

Register Here!

